

Teic alapfokú feladatsor

TELC B1

1. READING COMPREHENSION-PART 1

Read the five texts 1–5. Then read the headlines a-j. Decide which headline goes best with which text.

1. The online group Anonymous said it brought down the sites of the Ministry of Information and President Hosni Mubarak's National Democratic Party in support of the antigovernment protests.

2. For a company that is all about organizing and searching information, Google's Android Market app store has been surprisingly unorganized and hard to search. That changed Wednesday.

3. Rupert Murdoch on Wednesday pushed the send button on The Daily, a news application designed for the iPad that he hopes will position his News Corporation front and center in the digital newsstand of the future.

4. MANCHESTER, England — More than halfway through a soccer season in which the world's most valuable sports team has yet to lose a match, the singing and banners proclaim, "We're Man United, we do what we want."

5. The United States Anti-Doping Agency, and not cycling's governing body, will handle the drug testing at the country's most prominent road bicycle race.

- a. Unorganized Google app store
- b. Government employs hackers
- c. Manchester United is undefeated
- d. Murdoch sold The Daily
- e. Google Fixes Its App Store
- f. U.S. Agency to Handle Drug Testing
- g. Manchester United has lost its latest match
- h. Hackers Shut Down Government Sites
- i. Dope users were caught
- j. News Corporation Introduces The Daily, a Digital-Only Newspaper

2. READING COMPREHENSION PART 2

Read the following text, then choose the answers to questions 6-10 and mark your answer a, b or c on the answer sheet.

MENEZES COP KILLS AGAIN

A POLICE marksman who shot dead Brazilian Jean Charles de Menezes on the London Underground has killed a suspected armed robber, it was revealed last night.

The cop was one of a team involved in the shooting of unarmed Mr de Menezes at Stockwell last year. On Tuesday night the officer opened fire on Robert Hames in New Romney, Kent, after the suspect had fired a shot at police.

Hames, 30, was gunned down as he and other members of a gang tried to snatch cash from security guards. He ignored a police order to lay down his sawn-off shotgun and fired at them.

A sawn-off double-barrelled gun with one spent round and one live round in its barrels were seized at the scene after Hames fell, fatally wounded.

A senior source inside Scotland Yard said: "The officer who shot de Menezes is also the officer who killed the armed robber in this latest incident.

"The circumstances were entirely different. The man who was shot was warned."

The Yard also confirmed that one officer involved in the Kent shooting has since been relieved of firearms duties, as is routine in such circumstances.

The two police officers who were involved in the de Menezes shooting last were suspended.

They returned to duty after the Independent Police Complaints Commission ruled they had not committed a criminal act.

6. Menezes was killed

a. last night.

b. on Tuesday.

c. last year.

7. The officer that shot the gun in the first case

a. never used weapons again.

b. was told not to use weapons again until a Police Commission decided the opposite.

c. was told not to use weapons again by the Police Commission.

8. The robbers were
- a. trying to rob money from security guards.
 - b. trying to rob money from a bank.
 - c. trying to rob money from the London Underground.

9. According to a Scotland Yard officer:

- a. the two cases were the same
- b. policemen should not carry firearms
- c. the two cases were not the same

10. Hames was

- a. killed
- b. injured
- c. taken to hospital

3. READING COMPREHENSION- PART3

Read the situations 11-20 and then read the sentences a-l.

Decide which sentence goes with which situation!

- 11. You cannot find your medication.
- 12. You are in a bookshop.
- 13. You have just received a parcel.
- 14. You are at the petrol station.
- 15. You have not done your homework.
- 16. You are at the bus stop.
- 17. You are going to have breakfast.
- 18. You want to order something on the internet.
- 19. You want to eat something in a pub.
- 20. You are not sure about something.

- a, Would you check the tyre pressure, please?
- b, Well, I think I'm going to use my PayPal account for this.
- c, Where is the knife, honey?
- d, I am positive.
- e, When is the next one coming?
- f, I could not tell.
- g, Have you seen my ointment?
- h, How about some ice cream?
- i, I won't punish you this time.
- j, Do you have meals in here?
- k, I am looking for some high-brow literature.
- l, How would you like it, scrambled or fried?

4. LANGUAGE ELEMENTS PART 1

Read the following text and decide which word or phrase a, b or c is missing in items 21-30

Mark your answers on the answer sheet.

A young man hurried ...21... his town library. He went up to one ...22...the old librarians and said to her eagerly, "...23... you remember that you persuaded ...24...to borrow a book about Greek history a week ...25...?"

"Yes, that's right," answered the librarian.

"Do you remember the name ...26...the book?" the young man asked.

The librarian felt very...27..., because she was always trying to get young people to take out books about Greek history, and she ...28...found one who was willing to accept her suggestions.

"Yes," she answered. "Do you want to take it out again? Did you think that it was interesting?"

“No, of course not,” said the young man, “but when I was taking it home, I met a girl on the bus, and I wrote her telephone number in the book. I want ...29... telephone ...30..., so please may I look at the book again?”

- | | | | | |
|----------|----------|-----------|-----------|-------------|
| 21. | 22. | 23. | 24. | 25. |
| a, into | a, with | a, Did | a, I | a, since |
| b, onto | b, of | b, Do | b, myself | b, ago |
| c, on | c, which | c, Would | c, me | c, later |
| 26. | 27. | 28. | 29. | 30. |
| a, of | a, proud | a, rarely | a, ing | a, with her |
| b, about | b, good | b, always | b, - | b, to her |
| c, from | c, well | c, often | c, to | c, her |

5. LANGUAGE ELEMENTS PART 2

Read the following text and decide which word or phrase a-o is missing in items 31-40. Mark your answers on the answer sheet.

GLOBAL ENGLISH

The ...31...English of our times has all the benefits of the standardizing process we have been describing. There is a recognized ...32...in Britain and America. There is also an agreed, standardized ...33...and spelling ...34.... Or nearly. Global English speaks with two...35...: British and...36.... A student in, say, Japan or Saudi Arabia is confronted with not one version, but two, a distinction recognized by the main language schools, like Berlitz, who offer either British English or American English to their pupils. The differences are essentially differences of accent, inflection, spelling and, above all, vocabulary: ...37...versus flat, buddy versus mate, cand...38... versus sweets, diaper versus nappy. There are so many different expressions that America’s Associated Press and Britain’s Reuters news agencies have to translate English into...40.... The Reuters office in New York has a twelve-page list of common terms requiring translation and many are the books that compile jokes about box, knock up and fag.

- a. very
- b. vocabulary
- c. global
- d. American

- e. system
- f. candy
- g. voices
- h. apartment
- i. German
- j. England
- k. English
- l. America
- m. various
- n. chocolate
- o. standard

6. LETTER WRITING

Write a letter to your friend about the new house you moved in.

-write something about the rooms

-write about the neighborhood

-write about the garden and surroundings

Sample:

Dear Sam,

I was very glad when I received your letter about your new job. I hope you feel good there.

Imagine I have just moved in my new home. It is a big house and my children love it. There are three bedrooms, a big kitchen with a dining room, two bathrooms with toilets included and of course an awesome living room. My personal favorite is the living room, where I could hang my paintings. You know I love to paint. I even have my own study room, where I can work.

We have a big garden as well, where Foxy and Joey can play. They have their own doghouses and they seem like it very much. There are some trees and flowers too, and I'm planning to build a swimming pool there.

Since we have just moved in, I do not know anything about the neighborhood, but they seem nice, decent people. I'm going to surprise them with some home-made cakes tomorrow.

Please write me as soon as you can. I cannot wait to hear about you and the others.

Bye,

Susy

Megoldás:

1. h

2. e

3. j

4. c

5. f

6. c

7. b

8. a

9. c

10. a

11. g

12. k

13. c

14. a

15. i

16. e

17. l

18. b

19. j

20. f

21. a

22. b

23. c

24. c

25. b

26. a

27. a

28. a

29. c

30. c

31. c

32. o

33. b

34. e

35. g

36. d

37. h

38. f

39. i

40. k